Symantec has taken steps so that the Collected Information, if transferred, receives an adequate level of protection.

In order to promote awareness, detection and prevention of internet security risks, Symantec may share the information collected through Embedded Security: Critical System Protection and/or information we may receive from You when You receive technical support, with research organizations and other security software vendors. Symantec may also use statistics derived from your information through Embedded Security: Critical System Protection or submitted by You, to track and publish reports on security risk trends.

Please be advised that in certain instances, it may be necessary for Symantec to disclose Your personal information to government officials or otherwise as required by our legal obligations.

How We Protect Your Information

To protect Your information, we have taken appropriate administrative, technical, physical and procedural security measures, consistent with international information practices.

Your Obligation to Personal Information

It is Your responsibility to ensure that any disclosure by You to Symantec of personal information of Your users or third parties is in compliance with national laws governing the collection, use and protection of personal information applicable to Your country or region of operation. In particular, it is Your responsibility to inform users and third parties that You are providing their information to Symantec, to inform them of how it will be used and to gather appropriate consents required for such transfer and use.

Disclosures to Law Enforcement

Subject to applicable laws, Symantec reserves the right to cooperate with any legal process and any law enforcement or other government inquiry related to Your use of Embedded Security: Critical System Protection. This means that Symantec may provide documents and information relevant to a court subpoena or to a law enforcement or other government investigation.

Accessing, Updating, or Correcting Your Information

Under certain circumstances, You may be able to request the removal of information we have about You. We will respond to requests to access or delete your information within 30 days. We may retain certain data contributed by You if it may be necessary to prevent fraud or future abuse, or for legitimate business purposes, such as analysis of aggregated, non-personally-identifiable data, account recovery, or if required by law.
