Any guidelines for eligibility to purchase Online Services may be outlined in a separately published guide.

3. USE OF ONLINE SERVICES

b) Acceptable Use of Online Services. You may use the Online Services i) for Your internal business purpose, ii) up to the Meter amount for which You have purchased a Subscription, iii) only for lawful business purposes, and iv) in accordance with any acceptable use policy published by Symantec and the applicable Service Description. If You do not comply with these requirements, Symantec reserves the right to immediately suspend all or part of the Online Services during such non-compliance, without compensation to You of any kind.

c) Customer Configurations. The Online Services do not include Your configurations, nor policies and procedures implemented and set by You that are available through the Online Services. You acknowledge and agree that You are solely responsible for selecting Your configurations and assuring that the selection conforms to Your policies and procedures and complies with all applicable laws and regulations in jurisdictions in which You are accessing the Online Services.

d) Changes to Subscription Meter Amounts. For Subscriptions that are invoiced in arrears, You can change Your Subscription Meter amount at any time, without having to submit any additional order to Symantec for such changes. For Subscriptions that are invoiced in advance, You may increase Your Subscription Meter amount at any time, by submitting an order for additional Online Services. If Your current use of an Online Service exceeds the Meter amount shown on Your applicable Order Confirmation(s), then You must promptly submit a new order for the additional use, which will be invoiced at the then-current rates, or as mutually agreed upon by the Parties, through the current Subscription Term, and Your aggregate Meter amount will be the basis for any renewal of the Subscription. Symantec reserves the right to invoice You for any additional use, at the then-current rates, if a corresponding order is not promptly received. Each additional order will be subject to the then-current version of this Agreement.

4. SUBSCRIPTION TERM; AUTOMATIC RENEWAL

a) Subscription Term and Automatic Renewal Option. The Subscription Term will start on the date indicated on the Order Confirmation. If Your Order Confirmation indicates that the Subscription will automatically renew for the Online Service, then Your account will be invoiced without further action by You on the renewal date for the aggregate Meter amount at the end of the previous Subscription Term. If Your Order Confirmation does not indicate automatic renewal, then You must contact Symantec or Your reseller prior to the expiration of Your current Subscription Term to continue to access the Online Services beyond the end of the Subscription Term.

b) Automatic Renewal Opt Out. For Subscriptions that automatically renew, You may opt out of the automatic renewal option at any time by contacting Your reseller or by contacting Symantec at customer care@symantec.com. In the event that Symantec ceases to offer automatic renewal for specific Online Services, Symantec will provide notification to Your then-current business or technical contact, and/or by publication on the applicable administrator portal for the Online Service(s).

c) Pay for Use Option. Notwithstanding a) and b) above, for Online Services that offer a pay for use option, as specified in the Service Description or applicable program guide, Your invoices will be based upon Your actual usage in the preceding month with or without an upfront commitment. You will continue to be invoiced so long as You continue to use the Online Services.

d) End of Online Service Availability. Symantec will aim to provide twelve (12) months' notice of the last date of an Online Service's availability. Symantec will provide such notification to Your then-current business or technical contact, and/or by publication on the applicable administrator portal for the Online Service(s). Once an Online Service is no longer available, You will no longer have access to or use of the Online Service.

5. TERM; TERMINATION

a) Term. These Online Services Terms and Conditions are effective upon the date of acceptance or Your use of the Online Services, whichever occurs first, and will continue unless terminated as specified below.

b) Right to Termination. (i) If You have chosen the automatic renewal option for Your Subscriptions, then You may cancel automatic renewal at any time. (ii) For Subscriptions that are paid in advance or for Subscription Terms of twelve (12) months or longer, such Subscriptions are non-cancellable and payments for such Subscriptions are non-refundable. (iii) For Subscriptions paid in arrears, with a Subscription Term of no more than thirty (30) days, either Party may cancel orders for such Subscriptions upon thirty (30) days' written notice before the end of Your next billing cycle. (iv) This Agreement and each individual Subscription may be terminated by either Party if the other Party breaches any material term of this Agreement and such breach remains uncorrected for thirty (30) days following written notice; or immediately, if the other Party becomes the subject of a voluntary or involuntary petition in bankruptcy or any involuntary proceeding relating to insolvency, receivership, liquidation, or similar action for the benefit of creditors as a consequence of debt, or if the other Party otherwise ceases or threatens to cease business.

c) Effect of Termination. Upon termination of an individual Subscription, the Agreement and all other Subscriptions will continue. Upon termination of this Agreement in whole, all current Subscriptions will be terminated immediately. Termination of this Agreement will be without prejudice to any rights or liabilities accrued as of the date of termination. Symantec is entitled to invoice and be paid for all Online Services provided up to the effective date of termination, and all invoices become immediately then due and payable. Any provision of the Agreement, which is intended to survive expiration or termination will survive, including, without limitation, confidentiality, restrictions on use of intellectual property, indemnity, limitations on liability and disclaimers of warranties and damages, governing law, and Your payment obligations accrued prior to termination.

6. PRICING; INVOICES; FEES; PAYMENT; TAXES.

THE FOLLOWING TERMS SHALL APPLY ONLY IN THE EVENT THAT SYMANTEC ACCEPTS CUSTOMER'S ORDERS DIRECTLY.

a) Pricing. Symantec reserves the right to change its pricing at any time. Symantec may change its pricing for an Online Service by publishing, quoting or invoicing You for the updated pricing and will aim to provide advance notice before such changes take effect.

b) Invoices. Symantec reserves the right to invoice immediately upon acceptance of an Online Service(s) order. If You require a purchase order document ("PO"), in order for Symantec to process Your payment of an invoice, then such PO must include sufficient detail to allow Symantec to accept and accurately fulfill Your order. Depending on the Online Service Subscription model You select, Symantec will either (i) invoice You for the Online Services in advance, or (ii) invoice You in arrears. Such invoicing schedule will be defined in the Order Confirmation. Symantec reserves the right to begin invoicing You, even if Symantec cannot provide the Online Services due to Your act or omission or failure to provide required information.

c) Fees and Payment. You will pay Symantec the fees agreed to by the Parties ("Fees") within thirty (30) days from the date of invoice unless otherwise mutually agreed to in writing by the Parties. Your order may contain Online Services that are invoiced in advance or in arrears. If any sum payable to Symantec is not paid by the due date, Symantec reserves the right, without prejudice to any other remedy, to (i) charge interest on such overdue sum on a day to day basis from the due date until paid in full the lesser of one percent (1%) per month or the maximum rate permitted by applicable law; and/or (ii) suspend the provision of the Online Services upon five (5) days prior notice, until paid in full.

d) Taxes. You are responsible for all taxes, customs duties, import fees or other similar charges, and all other mandatory payments imposed by government entities with respect to the Online Services or other items provided under this Agreement, excluding tax imposed on Symantec's net income and withholding taxes (subject to the condition of providing withholding tax payment receipts, as set forth below). Symantec will bill applicable taxes as a separate item. If a transaction is exempt from tax, You will provide Symantec with a valid exemption certificate or other evidence of such exemption in a form acceptable to Symantec. If

You are required by law to withhold any tax from the payment, You will provide Symantec with original or certified copies of all tax payment receipts or other evidence of payment of taxes by You with respect to transactions under this Agreement. If You fail to provide Symantec with such tax payment receipts, if applicable, then You will reimburse Symantec for any fines, penalties, taxes and other governmental agency charges resulting from such failure.

7. PURCHASING THROUGH RESELLER. If You order from a Symantec reseller (“Reseller”), then all provisions related to pricing, invoicing, fees, payments and taxes shall be as agreed between You and Reseller. Symantec will not be liable for any agreement between You and Reseller for any other account administration on Your behalf.

8. WARRANTY. Symantec warrants that it provides Online Services using reasonable care and skill in accordance with the corresponding Services Description and within the industry standards. The warranty for an Online Service ends when the Online Service ends.

9. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY. The intellectual property rights in the Online Services are and will remain Symantec property or that of Symantec’s licensors.

10. DEFENSE OF THIRD PARTY CLAIMS.

a) By Symantec. Symantec will defend You against any claims asserting that the Online Services infringe any intellectual property right of a third party, and will pay any and all damages finally awarded by a court and actually paid by You, or agreed to in a final settlement by Symantec and attributable to such claim. Symantec’s obligations under this provision are subject to Your doing the following: notifying Symantec of the claim in writing, as soon as You learn of it; providing Symantec with all reasonable assistance and information to enable Symantec to perform Symantec’s duties under this Section; allowing Symantec sole control of the defense and all related settlement negotiations; and not having compromised or settled such claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, You may participate at Your expense in the defense of any such claim with Your own counsel, provided that Symantec retains sole control of the claim. You have the right to approve any settlement that affirmatively places on You an obligation that has a material adverse effect on You other than the obligations to cease using the affected Online Service or to pay sums indemnified under this Section. Such approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

If the Online Services are found to infringe, or if Symantec determines in Symantec’s sole opinion that the Online Services are likely to be found to infringe, then Symantec will either (i) obtain for You the right to continue to use the Online Services; or (ii) modify the Online Service (including, if applicable, any Service Component(s)) so as to make it non-infringing, or replace it with a non-infringing equivalent substantially comparable in functionality, (and in the case of infringing Service Components, You will stop using any infringing version of such Service Components); or, if Symantec determines in its sole opinion that “(i)” and/or “(ii)” are not reasonable, Symantec may (iii) terminate Your rights and Symantec’s obligations under this Agreement with respect to such Online Services, and in such case shall refund to You the pre-paid fees for the relevant Online Services. Notwithstanding the above, Symantec will not be liable for any infringement claim to the extent that it is based upon: (1) modification of the Online Services other than by Symantec; (2) combination, use, or operation of the Online Services with products not specifically authorized by Symantec to be combined with the Online Services; (3) use of the Online Services other than in accordance with this Agreement; or (4) Your continued use of infringing Online Services after Symantec, for no additional charge, supplies or offers to supply modified or replacement non-infringing Online Services.

THIS SECTION "INDEMNITY" STATES YOUR SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY AND SYMANTEC'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE LIABILITY REGARDING INFRINGEMENT OR MISAPPROPRIATION OF ANY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF A THIRD PARTY.

b) Indemnification by Customer. You agree, at Symantec's request to defend, to indemnify Symantec against and hold Symantec harmless from any and all claims, actions, losses, costs, fines and expenses that Symantec may incur as a result of: (i) any breach by You of the Section entitled "Acceptable Use of Online Services", (ii) Your unauthorized use of the Online Service in a manner not contemplated by the Services Description, or (iii) any third party, including without limitation any regulatory authority claim in relation to Customer Content.

11. CONFIDENTIALITY. "Confidential Information" means, for purposes of this Agreement, the non-public information exchanged by the Parties, provided that such information is: (1) identified as confidential at the time of disclosure by the disclosing Party ("Discloser"), or (2) disclosed under circumstances that would indicate to a reasonable person that the information ought to be treated as confidential by the Party receiving such information ("Recipient"). A Recipient may use the Confidential Information that it receives from the Discloser solely for the purpose of performing activities contemplated under this Agreement. For a period of five (5) years following the applicable date of disclosure of any Confidential Information, a Recipient will not disclose the Confidential Information to any third party. A Recipient will protect it by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the unauthorized use, dissemination or publication as the Recipient uses to protect its own confidential information of a like nature. The Recipient may disclose the Confidential Information to its affiliates, agents and subcontractors with a need to know in order to fulfill the purpose of this Agreement, under a nondisclosure agreement at least as protective of the Discloser's rights as this Agreement.

This Section 11 imposes no obligation upon a Recipient with respect to Confidential Information which: (i) is or becomes public knowledge other than by breach of this Agreement; (ii) was in the Recipient's possession before receipt from the Discloser and was not subject to a duty of confidentiality; (iii) is rightfully received by the Recipient without any duty of confidentiality; (iv) is disclosed generally to a third party by the Discloser without a duty of confidentiality on the third party; or (v) is independently developed by the Recipient without use of the Confidential Information. The Recipient may disclose the Discloser's Confidential Information as required by law or court order provided: (1) the Recipient promptly notifies the Discloser in writing of the requirement for disclosure, if legally permissible; and (2) discloses only as much of the Confidential Information as is required. Upon request from the Discloser or upon termination of the Agreement, the Recipient will aim to return all Confidential Information and all copies, notes, summaries or extracts thereof or certify destruction of the same.

Each party will retain all right, title and interest to such party's Confidential Information. The parties acknowledge that a violation of the Recipient's obligations with respect to Confidential Information may cause irreparable harm to the Discloser for which a remedy at law would be inadequate. Therefore, in addition to any and all remedies available at law, Discloser will be entitled to seek an injunction or other equitable remedies in all legal proceedings in the event of any threatened or actual violation of any or all of the provisions.

Any transfer of Personal Information to any Sub-Processor(s) established in a Third Country/ies, if required by Data Protection Laws, will be subject to appropriate data transfer agreements (including Standard Contractual Clauses) with such Sub-Processor(s), unless the transfer of such Personal Information occurs via an alternative means permitted by applicable Data Protection Laws.
